

CONSULADO GENERAL DE CHILE
EN SAN FRANCISCO

Statement of the Consulate General of Chile in San Francisco

The Consulate General of Chile in San Francisco regrets the tragic death of the Chilean citizen Adolfo Celedón which occurred on September 12, 2010 in Berkeley, California. This terrible loss happened on the day of his 35th birthday.

Tomorrow, Wednesday September 12, 2012 will mark the second anniversary of the murder of an innocent young person in a crime that was committed by unknown people.

Since then the Berkeley Police Department has been carrying out an investigation in order to solve this case. The Consulate General of Chile expresses its appreciation to the Berkeley Police for the proceedings that have been conducted in this investigation and will continue collaborating with the police as well as with the family of the Chilean citizen Adolfo Celedón.

This crime has a high priority and is a sensitive matter of concern to the Chilean Government. We request the community and witnesses of this assassination to provide to the Berkeley Police any piece of information that could be helpful to solve this investigation.

The Consulate General of Chile and the Ministry of Foreign Affairs supports and encourages an expeditious investigation and prompt solution to this case by the appropriate authorities, so that the family of Adolfo can achieve the peace they deserve.
